PROVIDER RECRUITMENT

Our Provider Recruitment team is skilled at helping physicians and advanced care practitioners find the right opportunity within our growing, academic health system. We offer placement assistance for positions in both the Community Medical Group and Academic Medical Group with UofL Health – UofL Physicians, and other clinical positions within the University of Louisville Health Sciences Center.

Connect with one of our provider recruiters today to:
• Source candidates for open positions
• Arrange interviews and site visits for candidates (currently hosting virtually)
• Post a new academic or community medical position, once approved
• Remove an open position that has been filled
• Recommend a candidate for an open position
• Learn more about a specific career opportunity

Our team members are listed here as a resource for your specific recruitment needs.
We look forward to working with you!
