Discover higher education that fits your life

Put yourself in the position to pursue your career goals. Capella University and UofL Health are partners in providing you with access to higher education that's competency-based and geared to real-world application. Plus, special financial offers make this a great time to explore how Capella's online degree programs and certificates can help you reach higher.

The Capella advantage

Two ways to learn

Choose our GuidedPath or FlexPath learning format, depending on your needs and learning style. Both are flexible, affordable, and online.

We're the real deal

We're an accredited university, nationally recognized, offering degree programs and certificates in online learning formats that allow you to set your own pace and schedule.

It's not a solo journey

You'll have access to a support team as you earn your degree, including enrollment and financial aid counselors, academic coaches, tutors, and tech support.

Use what you learn right away

Competency-based education focuses on knowledge and skills that immediately transfer into your job, helping you stand out.

Ways to save

You and your immediate family may be eligible to receive the following offers:

- $6,000 GuidedPath scholarship
Plus, an additional 10% tuition discount.
- 50% off your first 12-week FlexPath session
Plus, a 10% tuition discount off each subsequent session.
- Work experience and transfer credits
Through a prior learning assessment, we'll help you find savings based on the knowledge you already have from work and training.
